Nugget Market Hosts Outdoor Market and Free Car Wash Benefitting the American Cancer Society

All-day event offers information and tastings from Nugget departments with free car-wash donations going to Relay for Life

Davis, Calif. – Nugget Market, located at 409 Mace Blvd., will host a “Fresh to Market” outdoor market and free car wash on Saturday, March 21st from 10am to 4pm. During this event, guests can enjoy free samples from Nugget departments, including deli, produce, meat, and more, and one-day manager specials will also be featured. Guests can visit Nugget’s own “Fresh to Market” booth, where Nugget associates will be on hand to answer questions and offer information pertaining to the latest Nugget news, events, website and e-newsletter updates, and in-store promotions. Guests will also be treated to a free car wash by Nugget associates. Donations will be accepted, and all car-wash proceeds will benefit Relay for Life and the American Cancer Society.

“Everyone here at our store can’t wait for the 21st!” says store director Rodney Beebe. “Not only are we excited to share our ‘Fresh to Market’ event with our guests and the community, but we’re really looking forward to a fun day of washing cars to benefit such a great cause – Relay for Life and ACS.”

Since 1926, Nugget Market has wholeheartedly supported its immediate communities while maintaining a steadfast commitment to offering unsurpassed service, quality products and low prices. Nugget has consistently been voted Best Grocery Store in Yolo County by Davis Enterprise readers for several years. Nugget Market, Inc. is also a major supporter of the American Cancer Society, and groups of dedicated associates from individual Nugget Markets have formed teams to participate in this year’s Relay for Life fundraisers.
